RELIGIOUS FORMATION NEWS

Catechists please drop off teacher guides, DVD's at the parish office. Thank you!

Catholic link

The Eucharist the "source and summit of our faith", it is impossible to give it the credit it deserves.

"Recognize in this bread what hung on the cross, and in this chalice, what flowed from His side... whatever was in many and varied ways announced beforehand in the sacrifices of the Old Testament pertains to this one sacrifice which is revealed in the New Testament." –from the writings of St. Augustine

5 Ways to Grow In Devotion To The Eucharist

Desire. Ask yourself how much you really want to understand and grow closer to the Lord in the Eucharist. The first step is always the desire, the inner decision to allow His presence to be more real in your life.

Faith in the mind. Take the time to learn about the sacrament. The Catechism of the Catholic Church is always a good start. "The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life." – CCC 1324

Faith in the heart. Remember that love is only understood loving. We must strive for a deeper understanding of the sacrament, but it will always remain a mystery. That's why we must learn to develop an affectionate relationship with the Lord in the Eucharist. Go before him and thank Him for his love, for his mercy, for the ways that he acts in your life and the lives of others. Then do the same from your end, express (writing many times helps) your own love and feelings for him.

Here is an excerpt from a novices' conversation with Saint Therese of Lisieux. «I was grieving bitterly over a fault I had committed. "Take your Crucifix," she said, "and kiss it." I kissed the Feet. Is that how a child kisses its father? Throw your arms at once round His Neck and kiss His Face." When I had done so, she continued: "That is not sufficient—He must return your caress." I had to press the Crucifix to both my cheeks, whereupon she added: "Now, all is forgiven."»

Faith in action. Each authentic encounter with Christ in the Eucharist must change us. After receiving or praying in his presence, try to pick out a concrete act that you can do to bring Christ to others.

Learn from others. Saint John Paul II's Encyclical, Ecclesia de Eucharistia: To contemplate the face of Christ, and to contemplate it with Mary, is the "programme" which I have set before the Church at the dawn of the third millennium, summoning her to put out into the deep on the sea of history with the enthusiasm of the new evangelization. To contemplate Christ involves being able to recognize him wherever he manifests himself, in his many forms of presence, but above all in the living sacrament of his Body and Blood. The Church draws her life from Christ in the Eucharist; by Him she is fed and by Him she is enlightened. The Eucharist is both a mystery of faith and a "mystery of light." Whenever the Church celebrates the Eucharist, the faithful can in some way relive the experience of the two disciples on the road to Emmaus: "their eyes were opened and they recognized him" (Lk 24:31).

YOUTH NEWS

Hello Young Church!

Today is Corpus Christi Sunday, (which means "Body of Christ" in Latin). We recount the Last Supper and the institution of the Eucharist. Catholics take Jesus' words, "this is my body... this is my blood" (Mark 14:22-24) literally, believing that the fullness of Christ is truly present in the Holy Eucharist. The "substance" of bread and wine is changed into the "substance" of the Body and Blood of Christ, while the physical appearance, remains the same. This is called transubstantiation. Jesus gave us this tremendous gift and is why we have such reverence and respect for the Eucharist; it is the Real Presence – the very essence – of Christ.

Belief in the Real Presence compels reverence for the Body and Blood of Christ. A devotional practice that intentionally does this is Eucharistic Adoration, where the consecrated Host is exposed in a monstrance. While Jesus is always present to us when we pray, it's like the difference between texting a friend and having a face-to-face. This summer, find time to go to Adoration at St. Bernard's. But don't stop there! We were given this gift of Real Presence for a reason. You've heard it said: "You are what you eat." Well, theologically, we receive Christ in the Eucharist in order to become Christ for others. Consider this the next time you receive the Eucharist and go out into the world to be the face of Christ's compassion.

Eucharistic Adoration at St. Bernard's is every Tuesday and Thursday from 8:30 am to 10:00 pm. You don't have sign up or sign in and you can stay for as long or little as you want. Just COME. Spend some face-to-face time with Jesus!

Please remember those who have asked for our prayers:

Mrs. Rosalie Burda, Marguerite Barth, Brian Williamson, Tony Dorn Sr., Lowell Arlt, Gary Arlt, Danielle Weckwerth, Ed Walseth, Madeline Baumann, Merlin Stone, Rodney Wayne, Donna Kotaska, Roger Amundson, Timmy Nelson, Tom Miller, Elaine Radniecki, Rachael Carlson, Carlos Diaz, Tim Przybylski, Gene Burke, Duane Lusignan, Jannelle Knott, Brian Huerd, Gordon Peterson, Frank Miller, Fern Melby, Theresa Linnertz, Randy Winter, Alayna Espeseth, Michael Andersen, Andrea Dowers, Gail Hjelle, David Carlson, Kim Osowski, Bev Oski Hayes, Mikey Hedegard, Kristi Jobe, Dave Jobe, Patrick Odette, Mae Derosier, Matthew Kaiser, John Parent, Renee Miller, Cheryl McClenahan, Jeremy Johnson, Dan Dowers, Faye Brinkman, John Barry, Lisa Swanson, Grace Rundell, Judy Langhorst, Michael Kruse, Corey Refshaw, Marion Arneson, Hensley Chapin, Emily Novacek, Marty Torgerson, Paul Fladland, Randy Rasmussen, Micki Taddy, Gerald Kostrzewski, Lori Kristo, Sherrill McDonald, Dennis Srnsky, Katy Seed, Evie Huot, Doreen Dargon, Sharon Kozojed, Cindi Determan, Sr. Edwina Gerou, Candace Schafer, Wanda Murphy, Bonnie Audette, Renee Omann, Judy Taylor, Donna Radeke, Jerry Holmaas, Scott Peterson, Pete Christianson, Jane Palm, Patty Anderson, Audrey Berard, Delphine Ottesen, Nancy Gardner, Gary Lane, Donna Bergeron, Angie Kayfes, Adeline Borowicz, Larry Schaefer, Vivian & Bruce Linander, Pat Gaffaney, Arnie Schmitz, Jim Legg, Shelly Legg, Richard Perreault

Feast of Corpus Christi

“Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it.” - MARK 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for us, completely for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally. If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.

OUR LADY OF LOURDES
COUNCIL #4619

THIEF RIVER FALLS, MN

To all the faithful of St. Bernard's parish,

Pennington County has announced that the Pennington county fair will be held this year from July 14th through the 18th. Our Lady of Lourdes council of the Knights of Columbus intends to operate the fish fry stand as usual, but we need help. We need someone to manage the stand for the duration of the fair. The manager will be paid a stipend of $1000 for their time and energy put into this task. Volunteers must be willing to obtain a food license or work under someone else's.

This is a major fund raiser for the Knights of Columbus, which allows us to support our parish and community for the remainder of the year. Unless we have a volunteer to manage the booth by June, we will not be able to participate in the fair this year. Please consider volunteering for this opportunity. If you are interested or have any questions, please contact me via the information below.

Our June Council Mtg—6pm June 8th

Brother Knights,

Another council year is coming to a close. It seems hard to believe a year has gone by as your Grand Knight. This past year has been a year marked with obstacles, but as a council we have persevered. I would like to thank all my brother knights who have helped to operate this council and who have put in hundreds of volunteer hours. The world may have been shut down, but our council remained active, leaving no neighbor behind. I look forward to our next year together, in hope that we will grow and continue to do God's will for our parish and our community. I ask the Blessed Virgin Mary, mother of the Church to pray for us and guide us.

Vivat Jesus,

GK Mark Christiansen

June Meeting

Our council year end picnic and meeting will be held at brother Dennis Kainz's residence. He is graciously cooking pork loin and hotdogs for us, and your family members are welcome to join us. Please bring a dish to share. The meal will start at 6pm, and the meeting will start around 7.

Upcoming Council elections

As the end of our council year draws near, I would like to ask you to think about becoming an officer this next year. Particularly, we need a Deputy Grand Knight, Financial Secretary, and Treasurer. Please consider filling one of these roles if you can.

Fish Fry at the Fair

The Pennington County Fair will be held July 14th-18th this year after a one-year hiatus. At this time, we are planning on having our fish fry as usual. However, we are in need of someone to manage the booth. Volunteers for managing the booth will be paid a stipend of $1000. The manager should have a food license, be willing to obtain one, or be willing to work under someone else's license. This event is a major fund raiser for our council. The funds raised allow us to serve our parish and local charities. It cannot be over-emphasized how important this event is. Please consider becoming the manager. If we do not have any volunteers by the June council meeting, it will come up for vote if the council will hold the fish fry at all.

Knight of the Year and Family of the Year

Take some time to think about the knights and their families who have put in the extra effort in our council activities. We will hold nominations and vote for the Knight of the year and the family of the year at our June meeting.

Scholarships Awarded

Our scholarship committee had some tough decisions to make this year. Below is a list of the students who were awarded scholarships this year.
